1. Please present ticket to the usher. No one 25 years of age or older will be admitted without a ticket.
2. Services will begin promptly at the time indicated. Do not linger at the Sanctuary doors; it creates a fire hazard and the noise is disruptive inside the Sanctuary. Please respect the sanctity of the service.
3. Parents are expected to maintain the decorum of their children during services.
4. Everyone is required to wear a head covering when honored on the Bimah.
5. We encourage all Jewish adults and require men to wear a Kippah (Yarmulke) / head covering in the synagogue and a Tallit when appropriate.
6. Entering and exiting services will be at the ushers' discretion when the Ark is open, the Torah is being read, during sermons and standing prayers.
7. Please enhance the sanctity of the recitation of Hinini and refrain from moving around the Sanctuary while the Cantor proceeds up the Sanctuary aisle.
8. Food is not permitted in the Sanctuary.
9. Tickets are not transferable.
